Re: Permission for Use of Music by Carolyn McDade

Dear Friend:

I thank you for your inquiry. Please forgive this form letter. It makes an impossible job possible.

1. To facilitate this process I signed with LicenSing. If you are one of their constituents, you are covered in their regular process:

LicenSing Online, a division of International Christian Resources, LLC
(800) 452-9805
www.LicenSingOnline.org

2. If you are not covered above and do not intend to explore this copyright service, note that although I have never required payment as the bottom line to sing my songs, I, like so many creators of song, have a difficult time keeping this ministry going. If you have access to an institutional budget and are paying for the use of other music, please treat me similarly. A small donation of U.S. $15.00 is a great help. Please mail your check to:

I realize and honor that songs make their way in the world, forming relationships with people. If you have no funds and are a struggling group committed to social justice, to the liberation of women and oppressed peoples, to creating health and reverence for our earth, always sing. That is the reason this music is in the world. BLESSINGS!

May our singing deepen our living . . .

go well,

Carolyn McDade
